

Shared Social Justice Precepts Rubric /50

	Excellent	Strong	Below Average	Weak
DILIGENT PURSUIT OF PROJECT OBJECTIVES	10 You are focused during class work and do not interact with other groups except to get or give relevant feedback, and you do not play around. You accomplish all objectives of the project.	8 You play around once or twice but are otherwise focused and accomplish all objectives of the project.	6 You frequently distract others and do not accomplish all objectives of the project.	0-4 Your behavior creates serious distractions that prevent you and others members of class from accomplishing all of the objectives of the project.
SHARED PRECEPT SELECTION and EXPLANATION	10 Your two precepts are powerful and it is clear that they are similar. You restate the precepts in a new and unique manner to highlight the morality of the precepts and explain them using specific, thematic language.	8 Your two precepts are powerful and similar. You restate the precepts in a way that uses mostly new language to highlight the morality of the precepts and explain them using specific and thematic language.	6 Your two precepts are powerful but they are not similar but are related. You restate the precepts in a way that uses some new language to highlight the morality of the precepts and explain them in a detailed and thematic manner.	0-4 Your one precept is not powerful and cannot stand alone as a guide for moral conduct. You re-state the precept in some new language and explain it using general, non-thematic language.
ACCURACY AND CITATION OF PRECEPTS	5 You include 2 moral precepts and quote them accurately and cite them correctly using the names of the authors and page numbers.	4 You include two moral precepts and quote them accurately and mostly cite them correctly except for an incorrect page reference.	3 You include two moral quotes but make slight mistakes in terms of the accuracy of the quote or fail to include the correct reference to the authors or the page number.	0-2 You include one moral quote and quote it accurately but fail to include a correct and complete citation.

POSTER COMPOSITION, ILLUSTRATION OF PRECEPTS AND SYMBOL.	10 You create neat and clean illustrations of the required precepts and symbol that are easy to read and are well composed. The illustrations show the meanings of both of the quotes You include a symbol as a concrete object that connects to the shared precepts and to both of the books in a thematic fashion.	8 You create mostly neat and clean illustrations of the required precepts and symbol and the poster is well composed but there is one or two distracting errors, corrections, or erasures. The illustrations show the meaning of both the quotes You include a symbol as a concrete object that mostly connects to the precepts and to both of the books in a thematic fashion.	6 You create some neat and clean illustrations of the required precepts and symbol, but there are more than three distracting errors, corrections, or erasures. The illustrations show the meaning of only one of the quotes You include a symbol that relates to a main idea but it is unclear how it relates to either the precepts or the books in a thematic fashion.	0-4 You create a messy or hard to see illustration of the required quotes and symbol and there are more than four distracting errors, corrections, or erasures. The illustrations do not show the meaning of either one of the quotes. You include a symbol, but it does not connect to the precepts and books in a thematic fashion.
PRESENTATION OF POSTER AND SUBMISSION OF TYPED PRESENTATION.	5 You present all of your ideas in a focused manner that shows pride and respect for your own ideas and work. You are a respectful and supportive member of the audience at all times.	4 You present most of your ideas in a way that shows focus, pride and respect for your own ideas and work. You are a respectful and supportive member of the audience at all times.	3 You present some of your ideas in a way that shows focus, pride and respect for our work. You allow yourself to be distracted or distract others and require a reminder to be a productive speaker or supportive audience member.	0-2 You seem very distracted and unfocused. You present some of your ideas in a way that does not show pride and respect for your own ideas and work because you require more than one reminder to be a productive speaker or supportive audience member.
GRAMMAR/MECHANICS You have used correct grammar and punctuation conventions including capitalization of proper nouns, apostrophe usage, subject verb agreement and indefinite pronoun usage. You avoid VAGUE words like stuff, things, nice, good, back, okay.	5 You have no errors.	4 You have 1-2 errors.	3 You have 3-4 errors.	0-2 You have 5 or more errors.

